SITUATION CHANGING.

THE HOUSE FAVORS THE REPEAL OF THE SHERMAN ACT.

The Speaker Has Announced His Committees, but Virginia is Not Affected.

Political Talk.

TIMES BUREAU, RAPLEY BUILDING. !

Washington, August 5, 1893. The attendance in the house this morning was comparatively small, but the galleries were packed as the announcement had been made that the Hon. W.

P. Breckinridge would be one of the speakers of the day. i is difficult to say whether the fame of the silver-tongued orator or the notoricty of the silver-haired Lothario attracted the larger portion of the congregation, but it is certain that the distinguished combination of the "langours and lillies of virtue and the raptures and roses of vice" was a drawing eard of rare proportions and the multi-nade dwindled and shrunk away when it was announced that the Kentucky Congressman would delay his addresses rrow or Wednesday

Messrs. Bourke Cockran, Pellows, Reed, and lireckinridge are all slated for the next two days, and while no new argu-ments may be advanced it is certain at four strong speeches are yet to be seems very generally admitted to-day that there has been a considerable change in the silver sentiment, and it is now stated by some of the here-tofore most conservative men that the House will adopt the unconditional re-peal of the Sherman law. All things of course have had a bear-upon this, beginning with the rapid-increasing finencial crisis and end-with a desire on the part of many the Congressmen to stand in with the dministration. The great delay in a disadministration. The great delay in a dis-tribution of the patronage keeps many of the members in a strange state of solicitude lest by opposition to the Pres-ident's wishes they endanger offices which they hope to control.

The recent action of a State like Virginia ilso influences many of the Southern delethe President and simply affirms the plat-form which he construes to deand only an unconditional repeal of the Sherman law, there is no possible Construction save that either the Canddates demand it, or e party in the state approves of what e President has determined uron ow far the individual Congressman will

The aliver debate was interrupted for an hour this morning by the ann ouncement of the Speaker of his committees. This was an event of the greatest possible interest to every single member possible interest to every single member of the Hous and th reading of the lists was listened to with more attention than has been given so far this session to any subject introduced.

Many speculations had been indulged by the members and by the press, but still there was a surprise for everybody what the citizener declaying of the leader in the tarriff deliberations which will occur during this Congress. The selection was no doubt made simply because of the eminent fitness of the man for the place, as Mr. Wilson is recognized to be the best posted man on the tarliff in the house, and his ability and talents qualify him for ready leadership on the floor. The question of physical endurance being the only one ever raised by any of those who considered ever raised by any of those who considered the appointment. His appointment displaces Hr. The "Watch-dog" of the Treasury, Judge Holman, has been displaced and Judge J. D. Sayers of Texas who was the next ranking member given the Chairmanship of Appropriations. The "watch-dog" bark of "I object" will doubtless still be heard on the floor, but doubtless still be heard on the from that that very burk has created an unpopularity for Mr. Holman that finds bim relievedfrom any further especial watch-ing. He has been given the Chairmanship of Indian affairs.

In Virginia and North Carolina no

All of the Virginia delegation are ap-ments and as a whole they have fared very well indeed, although the failure of the Speaker to appoint Hon. Hary Tucker to the judiciary committee was a mat-ter of considerable surprise.

The appointment of Hon D. Gardi-ner Tyler on the Committee on Na-val affairs, that of Hon James W. Marshall on Agriculture and of Hon. C. A. Swanson on Post Offices and Post Roads, are all in the line of their preferences, and are all places which many of the old members would have ben delighted to have secured. Thus the new contingent in the delegation grant out in the delegation gent in the delegation start out in good shape for the work of their choice.

Congressman Marshall has secured the appointment of Mr. George B. Terrell of Wythe County to a position in the office of Public Printing.

There is no doubt in many cases much disappointment on the part of members who had hoped for assignment to cer-tain committees. Some of the older ones hoped for Chairmanshipss and many of the new ones had preferences which could not be gratified. There will no doubt be many resignations and trans-fers to follow in a few days, but the members have not yet had time to fully consider what they will do, and to all inquiries to-night they plead farther consideration before giving expression to their satisfaction.

Mr. Springer Dissatisfied.

WASHINGTON, D. C. August 21. When asked for a statement as to the reasons which impelled the speaker to ways and Means Committee, Mr. Springer said not to say that I am sur-prised at my deposition from the chair-manship of the Ways and Means Committee and appointment as chairman of the Committee on Banking and Currency is only a feeble expression of the truth. I have had no intimation from the speak-I have had no intimation from the speak-er whatever as to his failure to reap-point or to his intention to make me chairman of the other committee. I go from the work to which I have given the best study of my life to a committee to the business of which I have given but little attention heretofore, I know noth-ing of the motives of the speaker or of the object that he had in view. He has the object that he had in view. He has assured me that he desired to do that which he thought was best for the coun-try and the democratic party. I hope he is not mistaken but opinions may dif fer. I do not care to make a further statement at this time.

The Silver Debate in the House.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 21.—It has been practically decided by the leaders of the silver and anti-silver forces in the House to ask the House to amend the terms of the order under which the pending debate is being conducted. Owing to the demand upon the Speaker for time to speak under the rule for general debate, it speak under the rme for general decate, it was suggested that the five-minute debate to which the last three days of the week had been assigned, should be curtailed one day, and that time be added to the period set aside for the general discussion. Prosecution-Other Matters. ASHEVILLE, N. C .- Special .- The last case agaiust Albert G. Glover has been disposed of and he is a free man again. He left for his home in Boston Saturday. It seemed impossible for the prosecution to make out any case against him and Judge Armfield never allowed them to go to the jury' promptly announcing in each case as the State closed its testimony' that the State had failed to make a case. Thus it was not necessary make a case. Thus it was not necessary for the defence to introduce any witnesses. All the lawyers here seem to agree that Judge Armfield pursued the proper course in the matter. Glover has publicly declared that he will immediately begin a civil suit against A. J. Lyman and Dr. R. H. Reeves for damages for malicious prosecution. His course! made a motion which was His counsel made a motion, which was agreed to Saturday afternoon at four o'clock, to have Lyman and Reeves taxed with the costs of the crim-inal cases, which probably amount to $600. This motion was of course, contest-ed by the prosecution and JudgeArm-f leld reserved his decision until to-day. In arguing this motion, it became necessary for Glover's counsel to disclose some of the transactions out of which the prosecution arose. These explanations, it must be said, were both reasonable and satisfactory.

TRIAL OF JAMES LYNCH.

de Times.

The Prisoner is Believed To Be Insane The Identity of the Murdered Man Yet a Mystery-History of Case.

At the Chesterfield County Court yesterday, the trial of James Lynch, the tramp who has been confined in the Chesterfield Jail for several months, charged with the murder of the unknown man near Chester was commenced. Three witnesses were examined, and the court adjourned till today. Considerable in terest has been manifested in this case for several months, and a number of theories have been advanced as to what the result would be. A general opinion has been that Lynch would be discharged on the grounds of insanity. A super-intendent in aMassachusetts lunatic asy lum has written a letter stating that Lynch was confined in an asylum in that State one month before the murder tool place. Lynch's appearancewould cer-tainly lead one to believe that he is of unsound mind. He has a blank stare about theface that looks as if the man were in a state of reverie. It will be rememberd that Lynch was seen with the murdered man on the evening before the tragedy. The next morn-ing the remains of the young man were found lying face downward in a creek about one mile south of Chester. The skull had been fractured by a large stick two dollar note was found in the young mans pocket. No name was found or his linen, and nothing about his clother told who he was or whence he came. His identity has never been discovered. At one time it was believed that the man came from one of the New England states. It was thought that a clue to his identity had been discovered in Boston, and the authorities in that city communicated with the Commonwealth's Attorneyof Chesterfield is reference to the matter. Nothing definit was ascertained, however, and the identity of the man still remained in the dark. Lynch claims to be a Welshman and stated that he had been in this country several years. He denied having a hand in the murder of the young man but admitted having cooked and drun tea with the murdered man on the evening before the tragedy. The counse for the defence will enter a plea of insanity in the case.
